

Hawkins County Schools
Student Information Form
For Transportation to TAG Program at Walters State Community College

If you are interested in receiving transportation for your child to attend the TAG program at Walters State Community College, please complete and return this form to your child's school. There will be designated pick and drop off stops for the bus as outlined in the transportation letter. The bus will not be picking up children at their homes. Parents will be responsible for getting their child to pick up destinations and meeting them at those designated stops when the bus returns.
